THE LAST SIGNAL

by

Writer Name
writer@example.org

INT.. COMMUNITY RADIO STATION -- NIGHT

MARA
The transmitter is still warm.

MARA (quietly)
If the signal came from the valley, someone is waiting for an answer.

EXT.. RADIO TOWER -- NIGHT

The tower blinks above the dark hills. Mara steps outside with a flashlight and listens. The wind carries a faint pulse through the trees.

INT.. COMMUNITY RADIO STATION -- LATER

JON
You heard it too?

MARA
Now we decide whether to reply.